MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Fort George G. Meade Policy Memorandum #60, Patronage, Guest, and Age Limit Rules for Family and Morale, Welfare, and Recreation (FMWR) Activities

1. Purpose: This memorandum is to establish local rules governing patronage, guest, and age eligibility at Fort George G. Meade (FGGM) FMWR activities and facilities. These rules will be displayed at all FGGM FMWR facilities listed in Table A.

2. References:

a. AR 215-1, Military Morale, Welfare and Recreation Programs and Nonappropriated Fund Instrumentalities, 6 October 2008.

b. AR 608-10, Child Development Services, 15 Jul 1997.

3. Patron Eligibility:

a. FMWR programs are established primarily for Armed Forces military personnel. Ready Reserve members have the same priority as Active Duty (AD) military personnel.

b. Gray area retirees (retired reservists under age sixty): have the same priority as regular Army retirees for use of category C FMWR programs only. Other patrons and local and State Governments may be given limited access under applicable regulations and is based on local demand and capacity and at the Installation Commander's discretion. If a facility manager anticipates a space limitation issue, she/he may, after consulting with the Director of Family & Morale, Welfare and Recreation, limit participation or use to first priority patrons only. This may be the case at times at Gaffney and Murphy Fitness Facilities, the Outdoor Swimming Pool, as well as within CYSS. Patronage categories authorized eligibility at FGGM FMWR is summarized in Table B.

c. Family members, where specifically authorized in Table B, may participate in FMWR activities whether or not accompanied by the sponsor as long as they possess a valid DOD ID card, RecTrac Card or CYSS Card. Sponsors may apply for family member RecTrac Cards at the Gaffney Fitness Center from 0830-1630, Monday through Friday (301-677-3867). Sponsors may apply for CYSS Cards at CYSS Central Registration from 0730-1300 (walk-ins welcome) and from 1330-1600 by appointment only, Monday through Friday (301-677-1149).

d. The number of guests that a patron may host depends on the FMWR facility/program, space limitations, and the age of the guest. For example, guest use is not authorized at Child Development Centers. First priority patrons may host up to two guests per day (who must be at least thirteen years old) at Gaffney and Murphy Fitness Centers. Authorized patrons may sponsor up to three guests for a round of golf at The Courses. Furthermore, authorized patrons must accompany their guests at all times and must be willing to assume responsibility, including payment for services. Bona fide guest rules at FGGM FMWR are summarized in Table C. Table D details information contained in Table C as it relates to Ft. Meade FMWR facilities. FMWR facilities are listed by address in Table E.

e. Family members and guests of first priority patrons assume the same priority. All other authorized patrons have equal access, after first priority patrons, on a first come basis, based on local demand and capacity and at the discretion of the Installation Commander.

f. Family members under the age of eighteen, hereinafter called "Youth," may use FMWR facilities with some restrictions based on the installation's "Supervision of Minor Children" policy. In general, youth under the age of thirteen may participate in FMWR programs only when supervised by a parent or guardian or when enrolled in a program designed specifically to meet their developmental level (i.e., motor skills and maturation rate). Specific exceptions to this general age limit rule are summarized in Table C.

g. Routine FMWR patronage (programs, facilities, or services) by members or potential members of Non-DOD groups will be authorized only when the individuals qualify as authorized patrons.

h. Members of the general public are authorized limited patronage eligibility on a continuing basis subject to criteria listed in Table A, as participants in or spectators at FMWR sporting or special events such as the Newcomers Fest or the Oktoberfest.

4. As the Installation Commander, I may suspend, terminate, or deny patronage privileges if it is in the best interest of an FMWR program, the garrison/installation, or the Department of Army.
